

BULLETIN

Volume No. 68 | The Official Publication of Tarlac State University

TSU produces another topnotcher, Top 5 in LET

Noel Christian D. Angeles, OPAI

The Office of the Vice President for Research and Extension Services (VP RES), in partnership with the Technology Development, Transfer and Commercialization Office (TDTCO), Center for Gender and Development (CGAD), and the Supreme Student Council (SSC) conducted the Saliksiklaban: University-Wide Undergraduate Research Competition last May 17-18, 2018 at the Tarlac State University Gymnasium.

The competition aims to recognize and showcase the ability of the students in research, and provide assistance in filing their intellectual property protection, transfer and commercialization of the students' work.

Denmark F. Palma, Kisses Allene C. Catalan, and Michaela Joy B. Nucum bagged the championship title under the category of Science, The Office of the Vice President for Research and Extension Services (VP RES), in partnership with the Technology Development, Transfer and Commercialization Office (TDTCO), Center for Gender and Development (CGAD), and the Supreme Student Council (SSC) conducted the Saliksiklaban: University-Wide Undergraduate Research Competition last May 17-18, 2018 at the Tarlac State University Gymnasium.

The competition aims to recognize and showcase the ability of the students in research, and provide assistance in filing their intellectual property protection, transfer and commercialization of the students' work.

Denmark F. Palma, Kisses Allene C. Catalan, and Michaela Joy B. Nucum bagged the championship title under the category of Science, The Office of the Vice President for Research and Extension Services (VP RES), in partnership with the Technology Development, Transfer and Commercialization Office (TDTCO), Center for Gender and Development (CGAD), and the Supreme Student Council (SSC) conducted the Saliksiklaban: University-Wide Undergraduate Research Competition last May 17-18, 2018 at the Tarlac State University Gymnasium.

The competition aims to recognize and showcase the ability of the students in research, and provide assistance in filing their intellectual property protection, transfer and commercialization of the students' work.

State University Gymnasium. The competition aims to recognize and showcase the ability of the students in research, and provide assistance in filing their intellectual property protection, transfer and commercialization of the students' work.

intellectual property protection, transfer and commercialization of the students' work. Denmark F. Palma, Kisses Allene C. Catalan, and Michaela Joy B. Nucum bagged the championship title under the category of Science, The Office of the Vice President for Research and Extension Services (VP RES), in partnership with the Technology Development, Transfer and Commercialization Office (TDTCO), Center for Gender and Development (CGAD), and the Supreme Student Council (SSC) conducted the Saliksiklaban: University-Wide Undergraduate Research Competition last May 17-18, 2018 at the Tarlac State University Gymnasium.

TSU produces another topnotcher, Top 5 in LET

Noel Christian D. Angeles, OPAI

from page 1...

Pursuant to the College of Education's vision of being a comprehensive institution of excellence in higher education for total human development, Mr. Soriano that hails from Matatalaib, Tarlac City, tributes back its success in the board examination to the university's creed of giving quality education through its professional education program.

Topping other reputable colleges and universities, Mr. Soriano garnered a total of 91.60% in the secondary division.

Erstwhile, the university tallied a total of 50.00% passing rate in its first timers, over the 23.62% national passing rate in elementary level; and 60.16% passing rate in its first timers, over the 29.91% national passing rate in secondary level.

TSU welcomes accreditors from AACCUP

John H. Lanuzo, VP-ILEA Office

Tarlac State University welcomes accreditors last May 2 as 5 programs undergoes 2nd survey visit on May 2-4 at the TSU AVR, Main Campus. The programs under visit are Bachelor of Public Administration, Bachelor of Science in Electronics Engineering, Master of Science in Civil Engineering, Master of Science in Electrical Engineering and Doctor of Business Administration.

TSU BULLETIN EDITORIAL BOARD

Prof. Winifredo L. Luis
Editor-In-Chief / Director, OPAI

Mr. Noel Christian D. Angeles
Mr. Alexrael Y. Caculitan
Technical Staff

WRITERS/CONTRIBUTORS

Ms. Mary Stephanie B. Garcia,
OPAI-Intern

Mr. John H. Lanuzo,
VP-ILEA

CONSULTANTS

Dr. Myrna Q. Mallari
University President

Dr. Louella F. Ona
VP for Institutional Linkages and External Affairs

Dr. Michaela P. Sagun
VP for Administration and Finance

Dr. Armee N. Rosel
VP for Academic Affairs

Dr. Glenard T. Madriaga

TSU Receives 1.5M Grant from City Hall

Tarlac State University (TSU) received a 1.5 million grant from the Tarlac City Hall awarded during its flag raising ceremony at the Tarlac City Plazuela Covered Court last May 7, 2018.

The 1.5 million grant was given by the city mayor Hon. Cristy Angeles. It will be used for the operations of the university. Dr. Myrna Q. Mallari, TSU president received the said grant accompanied by Dr. Armee N. Rosel, VP for Academic Affairs, Mr. Harland Cappel, President, TSU Non Academic Staff Association (TSUNASA), and Prof. Antonio C. Rosel, College of Science.

Also, the university president met the alumni of the university who are currently employed in the city hall.

Usec. Harry Roque leads oath-taking of SK Officials

Noel Christian D. Angeles, OPAI

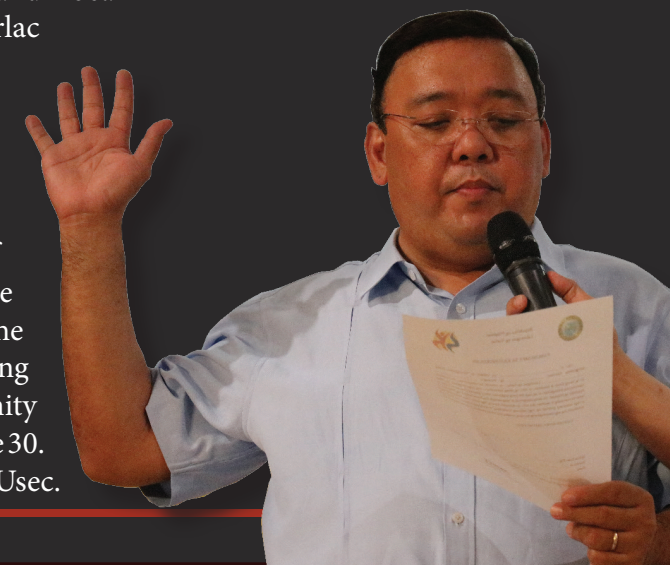

from page 1...

Usec. Harry Roque again touches the university's school grounds to lead the oath of office of the newly-elected SK Officials last May 25, at the TSU Gymnasium.

With the partnership of the Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG) and Tarlac State University (TSU) in providing the SK Mandatory Training (SKMT) 2018 for the province of Tarlac, the university warmly welcomed Usec. Roque to give a brief message of inspiration to the youth who will be leading the youth sector in empowering youth involvement in community development starting this June 30.

In his speech, Usec.

Roque emphasized how the elected officials should lead by example, and firmly embody Dr. Rizal's famous statement "Ang Kabataan and Pag-asa ng Bayan." Furthermore, he explained the gravity of the SK's responsibility in nation-building, and thus, the officials should uphold their sworn oath.

As a proof of excellence...

BSU seeks to emulate TSU's Outstanding Services

Noel Christian D. Angeles, OAPAI

A benchmark activity was conducted by the Batangas State University (BSU) last May 10, in the College of Public Administration and Government (CPAG) AVR in effort of gaining techniques in the university's first-class instruction, research, extension and student services.

Opened by the Dean of CPAG, Dr. Ma June S. Carlos, the representatives from BSU received a presentation regarding the general information of the university, including its administrating body, the university campuses and colleges, and student population.

Thereafter, Prof. Redemptor G. Toledano, the Director of Extension Services, provided a detailed presentation on the university's extension services – its processes, implementation, programs, and stakeholders. Furthermore, Dr. Leo P. Piao, the Director of Research, also presented the office's programs and activities.

On the other hand, Atty. Irish Valencia, a representative from the College of Business and Accountancy, exhibited the college's ways of training the graduating students in taking their board examinations – which includes participating in mock examination, national contests and etc.

The activity ended in a photo opportunity with the university key officials and presentation of gift bags from TSU.

The activity was coordinated by the Office of the Vice President for Institutional Linkages and External Affairs (VP-ILEA).

PNU benchmarks TSU-HRDMO

Noel Christian D. Angeles, OAPAI

The Philippine Normal University (PNU) comes to the TSU grounds for Training and Coaching Activity through the university's Human Resource Development and Management Office (HRDMO) last May 7.

Bannering its excellence as the office is proud recipient of Program to Institutionalize Meritocracy and

Excellence in Human Resource Management (PRIME-HRM) from the Civil Service Commission (CSC), the HRDMO conducted a series of

continue to page 5

TSU welcomes accreditors from AACUP

Noel Christian D. Angeles, OAPAI

Hosted by the Director of the Office of Public Affairs and Information, Prof. Winifredo L. Luis, the program was opened through a prayer, led by the dean of one of the programs under visit, Dr. Ma June S. Carlos of College of Public Administration and Governance, followed by the singing of the university's hymn, by the TSU

Chorale.

Welcome remarks, encasing words of wisdom for the programs under visit, wishing for a fruitful and productive program were offered by the university president, Dr. Myrna Q. Mallari. Dr. Elizabeth A. Amurao, Director of the Quality Assurance Office, spearheaded the introduction of the university's key officials.

On the other hand, Dr. Minerva C. Zoleta of Eulogio "Amang" Rodriguez Institute of Science and Technology, the over-all coordinator of the survey visit, introduced her colleagues for the accreditation, their purpose and the procedures that the programs will undergo.

PNU benchmarks TSU-HRDMO

Noel Christian D. Angeles, OAPAI

from page 4...

presentation on the office's outstanding services that enabled them to garner the said award.

The event lasted for 3 days – from May 7 to May 9; and was primarily organized by Ms. Josefina

M. Obiena, Mr. Elmer D. Granil, Ms. Nerissa S. Olarte, Ms. Judith H. Barde and Mr. Marlon C. Dela Cruz.

TSU organizes Saliksiklaban 2018

Mary Stephanie B. Garcia, OPAI-Intern

The Office of the Vice President for Research and Extension Services (VP RES), in partnership with the Technology Development, Transfer and Commercialization Office (TDTCO), Center for Gender and Development (CGAD), and the Supreme Student Council (SSC) conducted the Saliksiklaban: University-Wide Undergraduate Research Competition last May 17-18, 2018 at the Tarlac State University Gymnasium.

The competition aims to recognize and showcase the ability of the students in research, and provide assistance in filing their intellectual property protection, transfer and commercialization of the students' work.

Denmark F. Palma, Kisses Allene C. Catalan, and Michaela Joy B. Nucum bagged the championship title under the category of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM), with their study entitled "Characterization and Heavy Metal Pollution Assessment of Sediments from a Mine Tailing Area in Northern Luzon, Philippines." The winners were awarded fifty thousand cash prize and a certificate of recognition.

On the other hand, champions under the category of Arts, Business, Law, Education and Social Science (ABLESS) were Ronnie A. Cantillion Jr., and Ian A. Gabriel through their research entitled "A Proposed Expansion of Tarlac Provincial Jail." The duo received ten thousand cash prize, as well as a certificate of recognition.

2nd place in STEM category were Ma. Jan Nickole B. Fernandez, Judy Ann B. Hernandez, Janelle A. Salcedo, Caren Fe P. Salvador, Reiko Marie D. Salvador and Myke Jan

Styven E. Tadiar, with their research "Vibration Transmissibility Analysis Using a Four Storey Scaled-Pototype Shear Building Model." Conversely, the 2nd placers in the ABLESS Category was the study entitled "Veronica Roth's Divergent Series: A Cultural Analysis and its Sociocultural Implications" of Rolien Mark M. Balisi, Donna A. Molano with Mariel L. Mejia.

3rd place in STEM category were Christian Joy C. Valdez, Vicente B. Lapurga III, and Ma. Samantha Beatriz G. Sanchez with their research "Air Depression Modeling of Sulfur Dioxide Emission of Coal-Fired Power Plan in Zambales."

Judges of the said competition were Arlene D. Ibanez, Wilfredo Sibal and Maria Jenina A. Tongol for the STEM category; and Lourd Ernest H. De Veyra, Mon Argel Gualvez and Kriselle Joy Manalo for ABLESS category.

TSU organizes Saliksiklaban 2018

Mary Stephanie B. Garcia, OPAI-Intern

Striving to enhance the procedures and performances in giving excellent services to the students and stakeholders, the officials and representatives of the Pangasinan State University (PSU) conducted a benchmarking activity last May 11, 2018 at the Tarlac State University.

Dr. Louella F. Ona, Vice President for Institutional Linkages and External Affairs, paid a courtesy call at the Office of the President to give an overview of the processes and undertakings of the university. Mr. Bryan Jan Dizon, representative of the Office of the Vice President for Institutional Linkages and External Affairs, led the activity at the College of Public Administration and Governance Audio Visual Room.

Furthermore, with the supervision of Dr. Ma. June Carlos, Dean of the CPAG, the faculty presented the parameters and endeavors of the college. The officials and representatives of the PSU made inquiries such as accreditation status of the Bachelor in Public Administration, research and extension activities and faculty loadings, which the faculty-in-charge answered actively.

The activity ended with a photo opportunity with the CPAG faculty and gift presentation of both colleges.

2018 Trixian Support Services

Mary Stephanie B. Garcia, OPAI-Intern

TSS Trixian Support Services (better known as TORO) has decided to conduct its 2nd extensive competition dubbed as the TORO Inter-School IT Elite Challenge 2018. This is an annual event that their company intended to support on a regular basis. For the 2018 round, forty-five (45) colleges and universities in the region participated in this competition. It was divided into three categories. The following categories were: Frontend

Development, Backend Development and System Administration

On January 30, 2018, the final leg of the competition was conducted at Holy Angel University, Angeles City.

2018 Trixian Support Services

Mary Stephanie B. Garcia, OPAI-Intern

Each champion per category was given a cash prize amounting to twenty thousand pesos (Php. 20,000.00) and a plaque of recognition.

Tarlac State University, was the winner of System Administration category. Romeo Manuel David, a Bachelor of Science in Information Technology 4th year student, won the said category. The trophy was provided for the winning school, which is Tarlac State University. The trophy was awarded on May 31, 2018 at CCS AVR, TSU San Isidro Campus. It was attended by the Founder and CEO of TORO, Mr. David Brown, Operations President, Dr. Gilbert Tumibay, Ms.

Pauline, Ms. Marla and Ms. Danica- representative from TORO, the Vice Presidents of Tarlac State University, Dr. Armee N. Rosel and Dr. Louella F. Ona, the Dean of the College of Computer Studies, Engr. Marlon V. Gamido, the Associate Dean Ms. Valarie D. Simbol, and students from CCS.